

It is possible to delay the release of your Master's thesis or Doctoral thesis if you have serious grounds for doing so (e.g. patent application, partnership agreement, etc.). To delay release, complete this form and indicate the reasons for the request in Section C below. A 12-month embargo will be granted, after which your thesis or dissertation will be released in accordance with the rules established by the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

This restriction may be lifted at any time on written request, as long as the release does not contravene any other agreement still in force.

This form must be submitted to the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies at the time of initial submission.

A - Student identification

FIRST AND LAST NAME	Identification number (IN).
---------------------	-----------------------------

B – Restriction on release

A restriction on release applies to my Master's thesis or Doctoral thesis. I have checked off the requested restriction and indicated the reasons in Section C of the form. If no reason is given in Section C or one of the required signatures is missing, the restriction will not take effect.

Check <input type="checkbox"/> I request a 12-month embargo and have attached the Non-exclusive License to Release Thesis or Dissertation form (Note: this request is renewable once only for an additional 12-month period).	Check one reason only <input type="checkbox"/> My Master's thesis or Doctoral thesis is subject to an agreement restricting its release, as shown in Section C and attached hereto. <input type="checkbox"/> Other reasons as described in Section C.
---	---

C - Justification for restriction on release and supervisor's approval

Reasons (use reverse side if necessary):

Student's signature

Date	Signature
------	-----------

D- Supervisor's approval

Date	Signature
------	-----------